All Saints Catholic High School is an oversubscribed secondary school in the borough of Knowsley. All Saints is a Catholic voluntary aided high school, which serves the community of Kirkby. We will provide a Christian education for all pupils based on the teachings of Jesus and the spirit of the Gospel.

The whole life of the school will be determined by the Gospel values of love and justice. We will always value and care for all members of the All Saints community according to their needs and will affirm and nurture the development of all. We believe this can only truly be realised in partnership with parents, the parishes and the wider community.

Due to increased popularity of the school we are looking at making a new appointment within the school. The Governing Body of All Saints Catholic High School wish to appoint Science Technician Apprentice

The apprentice will work closely with the Science Technician, providing technical support to the Science department in performing practical experiments across key stages 3 & 4. The candidate must have an interest in science, and preferably hold a science qualification. Examples of work undertaken include, servicing items (i.e. Microscopes), supporting teaching staff in lessons, and maintaining an inventory of stock across the department.

The technician role will also involve study (day release is available), with the intention of studying for Laboratory technician (level 3).

Please complete a job application form that can be found on the school website: www.allsaintschs.org.uk and return to mmcgowan@allsaintschs.org.uk

All Saints Catholic High School is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children. Disclosure of any criminal convictions and an enhanced DBS check will be required for this post. It is an offence to apply for the role if you are barred from engaging in regulated activity relevant to children. The post may not be exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 as certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure. It is important that an applicant provides the school with upfront disclosure of all unspent convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings. A failure to declare the above (that are not subject to the Disclosure and Barring Service filtering) may disqualify an applicant for appointment and may result in summary dismissal if the discrepancy comes to light subsequently.

In addition to the checks set out above, the School reserves the right to obtain such formal or informal background information about an applicant as is reasonable in the circumstances to determine whether they are suitable to work at the School. This may include internet and social media searches.

The recruitment process for this post will be underpinned by rigorous safer recruitment assessment to ensure that children and young people are protected.

We are an Equal Opportunities Employer.
